SUBJECT:

Sprague Committee Paper on U.S. Resources

for Foreign Communication and Political

Warfare

REFERENCE:

Memorandum to DCI from DDP/SPO, dated 12 May 1960, subject The Sprague Committee

- 1. This memorandum is for the action of the DCI as suggested in paragraph 6.
- 2. The Sprague Committee paper on U.S. Resources for Foreign Communication and Political Warfare appears on the whole an innocuous statement of the various factors and resources involved in the projection of the U.S. image abroad. It says nothing new but constitutes a perfectly valid summary of the various activities and programs which are either conducted deliberately by the Government for the purpose of affecting opinion abroad or which accidentally or incidentally influence foreign public opinion.
- 3. The summary of unofficial American activity abroad beginning at the bottom of page 7 is interesting.

	4.	Of more p	arochial	importance	are	the	definitions	of	programs
on	pages	10 and 11.	They inc	clude (page	11)
